Notice of Privacy Practices

TO COUNSELORS/STAFF:

This notice describes how medical information about Camp LionHeart counselors/staff may be used and disclosed for the purposes of Camp LionHeart and how you can get access to this information. This is required by the Privacy regulations created as a result of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996.

COUNSELOR/STAFF HEALTH INFORMATION:

This notice describes the information privacy practices followed by Camp LionHeart medical staff. Our office is dedicated to maintaining the privacy of counselor/staff health information. We are required by law to give you this notice and maintain the confidentiality of counselor/staff health information.

OUR USE AND DISCLOSURE OF HEALTH INFORMATION:

1. To public health authorities and agencies that are authorized by law to collect information.
2. For medical treatment. For example, we will use the counselor/staff medical history to provide you with medical treatment as needed during the week of Camp LionHeart.
3. Lawsuits and similar proceedings in direct response to a court order.
4. If required to do so by a law enforcement official.
5. When necessary to reduce or prevent a serious threat to the counselor/staff health and safety or the health and safety of another individual or the public.
6. To federal officials for national security and intelligence activities.
7. To persons assisting in the counselor/staff care such as other doctors, or an aide who is providing care.

COUNSELOR/STAFF RIGHTS REGARDING HEALTH INFORMATION:

1. You may request a restriction in the way we use and disclose your counselor/staff health information. You may request that we restrict information to only certain individuals involved in your care.
2. You may request that we communicate with you by alternative means or alternative locations such as only at home or by mail.
3. You have the right to inspect and obtain a copy of the health information used to make decisions about your health.
4. You have the right to ask us to correct or add missing information to your health record if you believe our information is incorrect. To request an amendment, please submit your request in writing. You must provide us with a reason to support your request.
5. You may request a copy of this notice.
6. You have the right to file a complaint. If you believe your privacy has been violated, you may file a complaint with our practice or the Department of Health and Human Services at 200 Independence Ave. S.W., Room 509F, HHH Building, Washington, D.C. 20201.

As permitted by law, we reserve the right to amend or modify our privacy policies and practices and adhere to changes in federal and state regulations.

YOU MAY CONTACT OUR OFFICE AT 717-531-8674 IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS REGARDING THIS NOTICE OR OUR HEALTH INFORMATION PRIVACY POLICIES.

I hereby acknowledge that I have read the Notice of Privacy Practice of Camp LionHeart.

Volunteer and Counselor's Expectations

In additions to the associate rule and expectations camp counselors should abide by the following rules:

- No alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, or tobacco products are allowed.
- Prescription medication must be stored in its original container and secure in the designated area.
- No guns, knives, projectile devices, fireworks, or any other kind of weapons are allowed.
- Physically/Verbally suggestive or sexual behavior is unacceptable and will not be tolerated.
- Swearing and foul language are unacceptable and will not be tolerated.
- No counselor should under any circumstances be alone with a camper.
- No counselor should leave the campgrounds without permission from the director
- The camp director should be notified of any concerns regarding a camper/counselor's well-being or behavior

If at any time during the camp these expected behaviors are not displayed or a counselor's behavior takes away from a positive camp experience, the Camp Director reserves the right to terminate the counselor's stay. In such a case, the Camp Director will decide if and when such a counselor can return to camp in the future.

By signing below, I acknowledge and agree to the above counselor expectations/behaviors:
